KATZ, KENAN TAKE LAMBDA LITERARY FICTION HONORS

Edmund White has written that the experience gay and lesbian writers bring to literature is that of the outsider, the person who always looks at society from a certain distance. What distinguishes the writing of this year's two Lambda Literary Award fiction winners is that they look through a double lens.

Judith Katz' winning novel, Running Fiercely Toward a High Thin Sound, details a life both lesbian and Jewish. From this perspective, she has constructed a novel of magical realism, a dream world which interpenetrates and coexists with the world of ordinary existence, a world that borders on the mystical and the mad, of exaltation and of abject demoralization. Entering into her imagination is entering into a unique and yet oddly familiar place. Katz speaks with a peerless, unmistakable voice.

Randall Kenan has been called the new James Baldwin, but that characterization is too glib and facile. Kenan may share Baldwin's acute awareness of the destructive power of racism, but he writes not so much out of anger but from knowledge. Unlike Baldwin, who lived much of his life as an exile, Kenan is a man who can live in many worlds: black and white, country and city. In his Lambda Award-winning

Fifth Annual Lambda Literary Awards Winners Announced

Let the Dead Bury Their Dead, Kenan enters into many voices: a poor white gay southerner and an over-educated white confederate aristocrat; a black woman school teacher descending into madness, and a successful black accountant itemizing his own private hell.

Katz and Kenan are, however, but representative of a stellar year in lesbian and gay letters. Nonfiction winner Paul Monette, whose Becoming a Man has already been graced with a National Book Award, has in the past few years become a kind of living legend, an exemplary mortal transfigured by the truths he has to tell. Similarly a figure of legend, the late Audre Lorde has left us in Undersong a testament to a will and a discipline and an integrity sorely needed and already sorely missed. And Blanche Weisen Cook has reclaimed a legendary figure in her biography, Eleanor Roosevelt, and made her legacy more available to us.

Alison Bechdel has delighted us all with her humor, which compresses a whole cosmos into a laugh. Joan Nestle, in editing The Persistent Desire, has explored the archetypes of our community made flesh, while John Preston has brought together in Member of the Family compelling evidence that gay lives do not live solely in some magic circle of the Ghetto, but spring from and continually interact with the families that are our first homes. In Edward Field, whose Counting Myself Lucky won gay male fiction, we have a poet who has labored long, and with humor, despite never having gained the full measure of fame he deserves. And in David Wojnarowicz, whose Memories that Smell Like Gasoline won the small press award, we have a life cut short but observed with a passionate, inflamed awareness every step of the way.

Summer Authors Heat Up Lambda Rising

The summer season starts off hot and really sizzles with an exciting lineup of book signings in the Lambda Rising stores.

On Tuesday, June 22, from 6:00 until 7:00 p.m., Barbara Asher visits Lambda Rising/DC to read from and sign her new book Landscape Without Gravity. This is the gripping story of her family's struggle with her brother's illness and eventual death from AIDS, and stands as a loving memorial to her brother, Bobby. Hers is the first book to be written from the loving viewpoint of a heterosexual sister.

Mark Richard Zubro visits Lambda Rising/Baltimore on Saturday, June 26 at 3:00 p.m. to read from and sign his new novel, Political Poison. This book is the next novel in the Paul Turner mystery series.

Turner is a gay police investigator in Chicago, unmarried, and raising two sons. In this book, Turner is assigned to investigate the murder of a Chicago alderman. As he investigates, Turner discovers that jealous professors and old guard politicians have guilty secrets to protect, including the real reasons why they hated the victim.

Winding up the month of June, Fenton Johnson visits Lambda Rising/DC to read from and sign his novel Scissors, Paper, Rock on Monday, June 28 from 6:00 until 7:00 p.m. His book is

Lambda Rising is Growing Again!

With the coming summer sales season, Lambda Rising continues to expand its operations to better serve our customers. Earlier this year, we added a new position in our company for a full time person to work exclusively with our wholesale sales accounts. And, with that addition, our wholesale sales division is moving into larger offices nearby, with its own warehouse so that we can have more merchandise in stock to ship your wholesale order more quickly.

We offer a complete line of gay and lesbian gift items, such as our cloisonne lapel pins, jewelry, the rainbow flags, lambda mugs, painters caps, stickers, the lambda flying

Winners

The Publisher's Service Award honors Craig Rodwell, founder of The Oscar Wilde Memorial Bookshop, the first gay and lesbian bookstore which opened in New York City a quarter century ago. A veteran of Stonewall, he is, at this writing, in the final weeks of his life, suffering from terminal cancer. Where others saw mere words printed on a page, Rodwell saw an emerging gay and lesbian literature.

The Editors' Choice is a book that demonstrates that gay and lesbian writing still has the power to provoke, to shock, to irritate, and to bring new insights. Nine publishers rejected Richard Mohr's Gay Ideas before Beacon Press found the courage to put it in print—only to face further obstacles when printers refused it. Richard Mohr doesn't fit neatly on anyone's political map: his call for universal outing is more radical than anything Act Up has proposed, yet based not on the logic of punishment and reward, but on moral decency. At a time when the theme of gays and lesbians in the military roil the waters of the republic, his claim that gay male relationships can provide a model for democratic equality is daring and needed.

The Lambda Literary Awards were chosen by panels of judges out of 75 finalists, selected by a finalists committee from several hundred books nominated by Lambda Book Report readers and others. The Lammy winners were announced at a black tie gala held in Miami, Florida on May 28th.

Do you have old gay and lesbian books lying around your house that you've read and don't need any more? Why not "recycle" them to Lambda Rising and turn them into cash or new books? In addition to having the largest collection of gay and lesbian books currently in print, we also have a large selection of used and rare, out-of-print books and are constantly looking for more titles to add to our shelves. If you have books of a specific gay and lesbian subject matter, we can sell them in our stores. Either collect your used books and drop them by Lambda Rising/DC or send the books to the attention of Julie Bremer, used book buyer, at the address on the order form of this catalog.

Looking for Something Rare and Special?

As soon as we've had a chance to look at your books, we'll determine a fair price for your books, and send you a check for them. It's a great way to recirculate those old titles you don't want, and it keeps older books in readers' hands longer!

And if there's a rare or out-of-print book that you've been looking for but cannot find (maybe it was that novel you first read that helped "turn around" your life — mine was The Best Little Boy in the World, which is, thankfully, still in print!), why not give Julie a call and let her research it for you?

In addition to special order on new books, Lambda Rising is happy to take a search request for an older book. If we have it in stock, we'll call you with the price. If it's not, we'll hold your request, and, if the book comes in, we'll call you. (I've used this service over the years myself to collect the complete set of all the old Gordon Merrick novels.) Just because a book is out of print doesn't mean you might not be able to find it. Why not call Lambda Rising and let us search for you? You might be pleasantly surprised at what we can find. ## WRITING AIDS:

GAY LITERATURE, LANGUAGE, AND ANALYSIS

Timothy Murphy, Susanne Poirier

This collection of essays offers a wide-ranging and detailed examination of the place of AIDS in gay activism, literature, film, news reporting, and gay culture. Stresses the connections between language, understanding, and moral responsibilities, and affirms that an important part of stopping the ravages of the AIDS epidemic depends on taking control of its images and words when their meanings permit evasions of individual and social responsibility.

Millivres Books
Paperback $14.95

WHITE SAMBO

Robert Burdett Sweet
Mercilessly reveals a gay man's life from the ages of six to eighty-three, spanning the years 1936 to 2013. Quotations from presidents, popes, senators etc., frame each story, lending historical credence to the inevitability of all his character's actions and reactions.
GLB Publishers
Paperback $12.95

WAS

Geoff Ryman
This book explores the lives of several characters entwined by "The Wizard of Oz", both book and film. This is the story of the "real" Dorothy Gael, an orphan living with abusive relatives on the Kansas frontier. The book is also the story of Judy Garland; of Jonathan, an actor dying of AIDS; and of Jonathan's therapist. A powerful, moving story about how we survive, and about how the human imagination transcends the bleakest circumstances.
Penguin
Paperback $10.00

THE LIAR

Stephen Fry
An uproariously funny novel by this celebrated gay British actor. Adrian Healy is a boy with a brilliant brain and dreadful mind. He loves the delicious Hugo Cartwright, but is loved by the less than appealing Pigs Trotter. He likes eating toast and having sex. His tutor, Donald Trefusis leads him on an adventure involving toast, Piccadilli rent boys, Dickens' lost pornographic novel, international spies, and a machine that garners the truth.
Soho

WOMAN'S MOURNING SONG

Bell Hooks Explores the manner in which African Americans celebrate the passing on of the spirit to another world when someone dies. Her pieces ring with a woman's voice and reflect a positive outlook on loss and death that helps to explain the complexities of living.

THE MAN WITH NIGHT SWEATS

Thom Gunn
The great and undeniable potency of these poems comes from the poet's huge restraint, as much as struggles with AIDS. It shows a poet at the top of his form, gathering his world into art without ever blocking the passion.
These poems, with their syllabic and rhyming intri-cacy, move the reader

WILHELM VON GLOEDEN POSTCARD BOOK

Arcadian scenes with classically beautiful youths were the lifelong theme of the photographer Wilhelm von Gloeden (1856-1931). He created his homoerotic works at the beginning of the century in the Sicilian island of Taormina. Filled with the aura of classical antiquity, these photographs were a return to a more formalized portraiture, using a variety of props to convey the romance of a past age. 30 Prints from his collected work are gathered here in this volume of mailable cards.

GAYS IN THE MILITARY

PERVERTS BY OFFICIAL ORDER: THE CAMPAIGN AGAINST HOMOSEXUALS BY THE U.S. NAVY

Lawrence R. Murphy

Though persecution is as old as civilization, it becomes even more hurtful when governments legitimize and promote it as a matter of official policy. One great example of this is the largely forgotten persecution of homosexuals in the U.S. Navy. Murphy graphically documents the campaign against gay sailors during the period following World War I, which involved the entrapment of sailors by their shipmates.

BE POLITICAL, NOT POLITE

Romanovsky & Phillips
Fifteen new songs on this 1991 release. R&P at their most politically outrageous. Titles include Oh No ... I'm in Love (With My Therapist), Queers in the Closet, Love Is All It Takes, and more.

Cassette $11.95
CD $17.50

HOPEFUL ROMANTIC

Ron Romanovsky
This first solo album can best be described as "romantic with moments of comic relief." A (temporary) departure from his work with Paul Phillips, these cuts contain Ron's whimsy, but do not pack the same political one-two punch of the R&P albums. Cassette $9.95
CD $17.50

OUT ON THE ROAD

The Flirtations
It wouldn't have been the March without the inspiration from our favorites, and this group is one! Includes the acapella version of The Homecoming Queen's Got a Gun. Cassette $9.95
CD $17.50

NEVER ENOUGH

Melissa Etheridge
Ten original songs full of the versatility and passion of her previous work. Features Ain't it Heavy, 2001, and Dance Without Sleeping. Cassette $13.30
CD $21.30

BARELY BLUE

Suede
This 1991 second album has a heavy bluesy-folksy slant that makes it a wonderful album for a quiet listen-to, and one of our favorites. Includes Quincy Jones' Miss Celie's Blues, and a marvelous rendition of Scotch and Soda. Cassette $9.95
CD $16.65

JUSTICE

Toshi Reagon
The first album from this talented young artist. Mostly new material, plus a Georgia island sea song and a cover of Sting's Walking in Your Footsteps with her famous mother. Cassette $9.95
CD $17.50

PEOPLE HAVE THE POWER C.C. Adams

Another song written to benefit the 1993 March on Washington (a portion of the artist's proceeds are donated to the March.) This song is dedicated to anyone affected by the HIV virus. We have the power to overcome! Cassette Only
Cassette $5.00

ANOTHER PLACE

Margie Adam
Margie is back with a new collection that isn't to be missed. Includes Talk With My Heart, Long Haul (a tribute to those still fighting for our rights), and the gently moving Time Goes Slowly By. Cassette $9.95
CD $17.50

HOW FAIR THIS PLACE

San Francisco
Gay Men's Chorus
This album features a variety of song cycles for love (including The Last Night of the World from Miss Saigon), and religious music. An English libretto is included for all Latin songs. Exceptional! Cassette $11.85
CD $17.50

rites of passage

Indigo Girls
This 1992 release is full of energy over a base of Latin and African percussion. Features guest vocal appearances by Jackson Browne, the Roches, and David Crosby. Features Galileo, Joking, Ghost, Love Will Come to You, and Jonas & Ezekiel. Cassette $13.30
CD $21.30

CIRCLE OF FRIENDS

LIVE IN CONCERT
Cris Williamson
Live recording of the 15th Anniversary of the Changer and the Changed show. Includes selected highlights: Waterfall, Dreamchild, Song of the Soul. Also, a great rendition of James Taylor's Millworker. Cassette $15.50
CD $17.50

GET USED TO IT

Tom Wilson Weinberg
A funny collection of Weinberg's satirical and political views for the nineties. Includes Breaking the Penal Code With You, Friends in High Places, and Colorblind Blues. Cassette $9.95
CD $17.50

SHARE MY SONG

Melanie DeMore
An album steeped in African-American folk tradition, this 1992 release features I Hear The Mother Calling, Rise Up, and an upbeat version of Joan Armatrading's Love and Affection. Cassette $9.95
CD $17.50

NEW RELEASES

FROM THAT FAR

Erica Wheeler
A clear and warm collection of delightful acoustical folk music from a great new artist. Nine new songs, plus the traditional I Know You Rider. Cassette $9.95
CD $17.50

HIDDEN LEGACIES

Gay Men's Chorus of Los Angeles
A cantata in seven movements, this is a major choral work that speaks to the AIDS crisis. From the swaying country rhythms of Left Behind, a tribute to care-givers, to the lullaby title cut, to the final resounding anthem, We Sing, this album offers hope at the end of despair. Cassette $9.95
CD $12.95

HOLE IN THE DAY

Ann Reed
This new album of melodic acoustical guitar and vocals is one of the smoothest we've heard! Hers has been described as a "brown sugar and molasses" voice, and we won't disagree. Highly recommended! Cassette $9.95
CD $17.50

PANGAEA

Laura Love
A polished, upbeat recording. These 14 songs cover a wide range of issues and are exceptionally produced with great music and a talented vocalist! Don't miss this one. Cassette $9.95
CD $17.50

Editor's
Choice

PUSSY TOURETTE IN HIFI

Pussy Tourette
You've got to hear this one to believe it! Every conceivable musical style from an offbeat homage to Mae West to high-energy rock 'n roll with lyrics we can't print here, this politically incorrect Drag Rock is one of the best albums of the year. To quote Pussy's Boogie, "I don't know why I like it, I just do." CD Only.
CD $17.50

LOVE LIVES ON

New York City Gay Men's Chorus
If you missed it the first time around, this astounding 1991 album is back in print! Selections include Boogie-Woogie Bugle Boy, No One Is Alone, Tuxedo Junction. CD Only.
CD $21.30

PUDDLE DIVE

Ani DiFranco
An in-your-face lyricist who exposes our hidden thoughts and feelings, she confronts the status-quo in sex, psychology, and society by reaching unflinchingly into her experience and personal politics. Cassette $9.95
CD $16.65

Tom of Finland

TOM OF FINLAND RETROSPECTIVE

Tom of Finland

"If one name is universally known to gay men today, it is that of the undisputed dean of those renegade imagists who treat sexual males as the exclusive subject matter of their artistic expression... The subjects of his pencil and pen are conscious exaggerations touching the rawest ganglia of homosexual response: square-jawed handsomeness, massive pectorals, V-torsos, hemispheric buttocks, wholly impossible endowments. In no pejorative sense of the word, Tom's men are "cartoons": simplified, immediate, far bigger (and so much better) than life." —Dennis Forbes/Fred Bissones, photographer

THEATRICAL RELEASES

THE CHILDREN'S HOUR

A childrens' lie has life-shattering repercussions in this daring 1961 film based on Lillian Hellman's Broadway play, once believed too bold for the screen. The story begins at an exclusive girl's school.

When two teachers discipline a vindictive little girl, the child twists an overheard comment into slander: she accuses the two teachers of lesbianism. Co-starring Audrey Hepburn, Shirley MacLaine, and James Garner, this was one of the first movies approved by the new Production Code.

$24.95

PERSONAL BEST

Two female track and field stars come together in a love affair that is later challenged when each strives to achieve her "personal best" as rivals in the athletic arena. Stars Mariel Hemingway.

THE LOST LANGUAGE OF CRANES

Dad spends Saturday afternoons in gay porn theaters. Son spends time in the sophisticated homosexual milieu. Unaware of Dad, son comes out, realizing he'd upset the family balance, but not how delicate that balance is. Mom sees life turn into a cruel joke. Adapted from the novel by David Levitt.

THE CRYING GAME

Finally available on home video, this masterful suspense film will have you on the edge of your seat until the end. Now you can see what all the controversy was about, but please don't reveal the "secret!" Available Mid-July.

$94.98

FORTUNE IN MEN'S EYES

The cinematic classic is back! An unflinching look at prison life — the portrait of a young man sentenced to six months for smoking pot, who quickly learns that preservation means becoming the sexual slave of a stronger inmate.

$24.95

MOMENTS
